

National inclusive education month – February 1st-February 29th, 2020

National Recognition Certificate

The Canadian Association for Community Living will be awarding a group or individual from each province with the National Recognition Certificate. In New Brunswick, there will be a minimum of one Francophone certificate and a minimum of one Anglophone certificate awarded. Judging will be done by the Inclusive Education Committee of the New Brunswick Association for Community Living from nominations received by January 31st, 2020, 5:00 pm.

Criteria and conditions of participation:

- An individual or team of people deemed worthy of the award for making a positive contribution to inclusive education in their province/territory. (ie. teacher(s), student(s), principal(s), other school staff, school committee, post-secondary institution, early childhood centre or an individual from your community who has made a contribution to inclusive education) Visit www.nbacl.nb.ca for past winners.
- Nominees will be asked to participate in an interview (this may include a visit to the site to meet the nominee in their educational environment).
- The recipient(s) will be presented with the National Recognition Certificate at a ceremony (location and time to be announced).
- Special guests and media will be invited to attend.
- Media may ask the recipients to be available for photographs and interviews.
- Provide two references in addition to this nomination form. References can provide a written reference letter or provide their contact information for a phone interview. Phone interviews will be conducted by a member of the Inclusive Education Committee of the NBACL. Phone interviews with references will only be conducted with nominations that are selected after the initial round of review.
- Fill-out the Required information page

Inclusive education - Inclusive education is about how we develop and design our learning environments -schools, classrooms, programs and activities- so that all students learn and participate together. It is based on the firm belief, and on real experience, that all students have value and can best learn in regular classrooms alongside students their own age. Inclusion also means that our schools help develop positive relationships and mutual respect between all students.
